KAUMAKAPILI THE SCENE OF SPEECHES

Natives Attend a Big Luau and Listen to the Words of Leaders.

NDER the ruined walls of old Kaumakapili church, amid the glare of flaming torches, with starlit heavens as a roof, there gathered together last night hundreds of native Hawaiians to bid aloha and wish good luck to the Territorial Delegate to Congress, the man for whom hey had cast their votes, for whom they had fought the political fight and for whom they had prophesied victory. Robert Wilcox.

On a platform raised above the heads of the great throng were seated the leaders of the Independent Home Rule party, Bob Wilcox in the middle, with m.: 1 to 3 and 7 to 8 Mrs. Wilcox by his side.

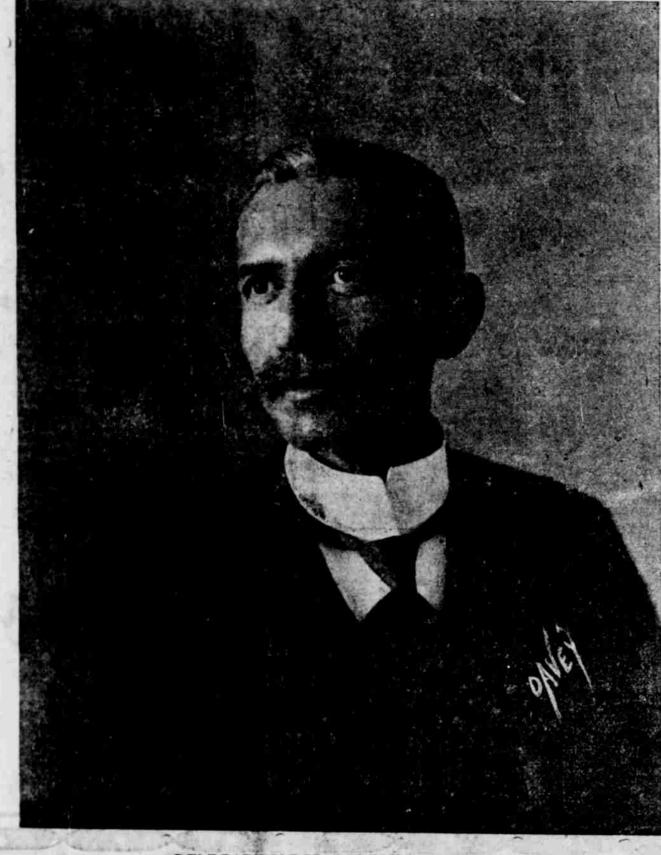

> The torch-bearers stood around the platform and let the light of their torches shine upon the forms of the people on the platform so that they could be seen from the farthest edges of the crowd. The torches threw a weird light upon the towering walls of the old church and also revealed a mass of attentive faces upon which were written enthusiasm, deep interest and a certain amount of triumphant pride

In front of the platform were seated on the ground, squatting cross-legged, in a circle, a large number of Hawallans, chiefly women. They were adorned with less and upon their hats and in Aligh.—Philadelphia Dental their hair and upon their bosoms they wore the colors and mottos of the MCHOLS.-Office, Alakea St., Home Rule party. Delegate-Elect From Hawaii Will Hasten to Nation's Capital.

ROBERT WILCOX received his certificate of election as delegate to Washington from the hands of Governor Dole yesterday afternoon. The certificates of election for the unexpired term of the Fifty-sixth Congress and the full term of the Fiftyseventh Congress were made out, the great seal of the Territory of Hawaii impressed upon them, and the signatures of both Governor Dole and Secretary Cooper appended to them. The certificate for the Fifty-sixth Congress, the first ever issued by a Hawaiian executive, reads as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION. Territory of Hawaii, Executive Chamber. I. Sanford B. Dole, Governor of Territory of Hawaii, do hereby certify that ROBERT WILCOX was, on the 6th day of November, 1900, duly elected for the unexpired term of the Fiftysixth Congress.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the Territory of Hawaii at the Capitol in Honolulu, this thirtieth day of November, A. D. 1900.

SANFORD B. DOLE. By the Governor, HENRY E. COOPER,

Secretary of the Territory.

The certificate for the Fifty-seventh Congress reads the same with the exception of the change in the number.

James K. Kaulia and John Emmeluth visited the Governor yesterday morning at the Capitol and stated that the delegate-elect desired to leave on the Rio, and they asked if something could not be done to certify that Wilcox had been duly elected, in lieu of a regular Sixth race-Weights nicely adjusted. certificate. As two precincts on the Is-Billy McCloskey has a crushing import land of Hawaii had not yet been heard but should win on class. Secretary of the Territory Cooper then decided to take the bundles of ballots which had been sent from the two dilatory precincts-second and fourth precincts of the Second District -before Justice Perry, and open them in his presence, hoping thereby to discover the missing returns. The search was successful. With these two returns the election figures were all made up, showing Wilcox to have received a plurality of 227 votes for the Fifty-sixth Congress over Samuel Parker, and 263 Governor Dole at once dictated the form of the certificate to his secretary, and the delegate-elect was notified that the two documents were in readiness for him. The official returns for the three can-terday that the only ones to blame were the inspectors of election , who had not followed their instructions properly.

"I do not blame Secretary Cooper, or any one of the government officials. The returns are not all in and the certificate will now come as a natural consequence," said he. Theresa Wilcox, his wife, will remain in Honolulu this winter, the congressional term being a short one. She says that the cold weather of the east now setting in is a prevailing argument against her accompanying the

DELEGATE-ELECT ROBERT W. WILCOX'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY AS WRITTEN BY HIM FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

ON, ROBERT W. WILCOX, Delegate in Congress, authorizes the Advertiser to print the following account of his life, prepared by his own п hand, which is to appear in the forthcoming Congressional Directory:

Robert W. Wilcox was born February 15, 1855, at Kuhulu, Honoaula, Island of Maul. His father is Captain William S. Wilcox, a native of Newport, Rhode Island, and his mother was Kalua Makoleokalani, a direct descendant of Lonomakaihonua, brother of King Kaulahea o Maul. His father was a sea-captain; be now an old man 85 years old. He first went to school at Walluku at the age of 8 years. When he was 10 years, old his mother died, then his father moved to ranching at Makawao. Incre was no English school at Makawao till in 1869, the Board of Education established the "Haleakala Boarding School" under Robert W. Andrews and Mrs. S. A. Thurston, mother of Hon. L. A. Thurston. Young Wilcox and his three brothers were among the first pupils of this school. He graduated in this school in 1875, under nuanta, till 1880. In 1880 he was elected to the Legislature from the District of Wailuku, Maul, as Representative. In the same year he was selected by King Kalakaua as one among three sent to Italy to study in the Military Academies. Through the King's influence to King Humbert of Italy he was admitted in the Royal Military Academy at Turin, in 1881. While he was there he studied under private teachers to prepare himself to enter in the regular course of the Academy. His professor of mathematics at the time was Captain Luigi Giletta, a staff officer, who is now a Major General in the Italian army. In 1882 he passed the examination and entered in the first regular course of the Academy. In 1885 he was among the graduators of the Academy, a d he was promoted from simple cadet to sub-lieutenant of artillery. In the same year he entered in the Royal Application school for Engineer and Artillery Officers. While he was studying at the 'ast course of this school as an artillery officer in 1887, he was recalled by the Hawaiian Government. He was just married to a young lady of the noble house of Colonna do Stigliano. The young lady's name is Signorina Gina Sobrero, daughter of the

While they were there Mr. Wilcox worked as one of the surveyors of the engineers of the Spring Valley Water Works Co., while Mrs. Wilcox gave lessons of French and Italian to young ladies, making the couple in better circumstances than in Wilcox's native country.

But Wilcox is strong headed to return to Honolulu and overthrow what the people of Hawaii called "the bayonetted Constitution and the reform government." So in 1889, Mrs. Wilcox and their only beloved daughter, returned to Italy in the midst of winter, while Mr. Wilcox returned to Honolulu as a determined revolu-

After two weeks of revolution and trying to get out of the country, he was betrayed by a low half bred Hawalian, and he was court-marshalled and sentence to death; but the U. S. Senste and Representatives intervened, and President Dole commuted the sentence to 35 years imprisonment to hard labor and ten thousand dollars. And in January 1896, he was given a conditional pardon and became a freeman once more. And 1898, President Dole gave him a full pardon, approved by the Council of State, While he was in the prison in 1895, Pope Leone XIII, granted to his wife an annulation of the marriage, also the Civil Court of Italy.
